Research Summary

Research Question

What is the meaning of الصلاة (al-salah) in the Quran, considering its various written forms (with and without و)?

Methodology

- Quran-only analysis (traditional sources used only for comparison)
- Exhaustive verse collection from root ص ل ي / و ل ص
- Morphological analysis of all variations
- Contextual pattern analysis
- Derivation of meaning from Quranic usage alone

Key Findings

1. Two Distinct Semantic Fields

The research revealed that the Quran uses two different roots that are sometimes confused:

Root	Verb Form	Meaning	Context
و ل ص	صَلَّى (Form II)	To connect, bless, pray	Positive - worship, mercy
ي ل ص	صَلَّى (Form I)	To burn, enter fire	Negative - punishment

Evidence:

- غَلَّيْكُمْ يَصَلِّي (33:43) - He blesses you
- لَّنَّارَ يَصَلِّي (87:12) - He burns in fire

2. الصلاة is “Established” Not “Performed”

Critical Discovery: The Quran exclusively uses أَقَامَ (to establish) with الصلاة, never أَدَّى (to perform).

Implication: الصلاة is a state to be maintained, not a ritual to be completed and finished.

Evidence: Over 35 instances of لَّصَلَّوْهُ، يُقِيمُونَ لَّصَلَّوْهُ، أَقَامَ and etc.

3. الصلاة Prevents Evil

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا لَعَنَ شَرَاءَ عَنْ تَنْهَى لَّصَلَّوْهُ إِنَّ (29:45)

The Quran explicitly states that الصلاة has a preventative function against immorality and wrongdoing.

4. Allah's صلاة = Blessing

When Allah صَلَّى upon believers (33:43), it means He blesses them and brings them from darkness to light. This reveals the core meaning of the root: connection and support.

5. Empty صلاة is Condemned

- The disbelievers' صلاة was "whistling and clapping" (8:35)
- Those who pray while "heedless" are warned (107:4-5)
- Presence (خشوع) is essential (23:2)

Traditional vs. Quranic Interpretation

Aspect	Traditional Understanding	Quranic Evidence Shows
Definition	The five daily ritual prayers with specific movements	A state of connection to Allah that includes but transcends ritual
Verb used	Often أدى الصلاة (performed prayer)	Exclusively أقام الصلاة (established prayer)
Scope	Limited to specific times and rituals	Encompasses all of life (6:162)
Allah's صلاة	Usually translated as "blessings"	Confirms: connection, mercy, support
Validity	Valid if physical requirements met	Requires خشوع (humility) and دوام (consistency)

The و Spelling (الصلاة)

The Uthmani Mushaf consistently uses الصلاة (with و rather than صلاة (with ا). This ancient spelling may connect to صلة (connection/relationship), emphasizing the relational nature of prayer.

Quran-Derived Definition

الصلاة is:

A continuous state of connection (صلة) between the servant and Allah, established (أقيمت) through conscious devotion, manifesting as:

- Worship and supplication from the human to Allah
- Blessing and mercy from Allah to the human

When properly established, it prevents evil and encompasses all aspects of life.

Statistics

Category	Count
الصلة as worship (noun forms)	~67 occurrences
صلة as blessing (from Allah)	~5 occurrences
صلي as burning (fire)	~15 occurrences
Total root occurrences	~87 verses

Key Insights on Divine Word Choice

1. Why أَدَّى not أَقَامَ?
 - أَقَامَ implies permanence, maintenance, uprightness
 - الصلة is not something you “do and finish” but something you “establish and maintain”
 2. Why paired with الزكاة?
 - الصلة = internal connection (established)
 - الزكاة = external giving (given)
 - Together they represent complete devotion: inward and outward
 3. Why does Allah يُصَلِّي؟
 - Reveals the core meaning: connection, support, blessing
 - Human صلة is reaching up; Divine صلة is reaching down
 - The same root describes both because both are acts of connection
 4. Why الصلوة with وَ؟
 - May preserve linguistic connection to صلة (relationship)
 - Emphasizes the relational nature of worship

Morphological Analysis

Root Information

Root Letters: ص ل و (ṣ-l-w) / ي ل ص (ṣ-l-y)

Note on Spelling: In the Quran, this word appears in two orthographic forms:

- الصَّلَاةُ (with و - The Uthmani script spelling used in the Mushaf)
- الصلاة (with ا - The standard Arabic spelling)

This is significant because the Quranic spelling preserves an older orthographic convention.

Lexical Meaning (Classical Sources)

From Lisan Al-Arab (اللسان العربى):

The root ص ل و has multiple meanings:

1. الضِّلَا - The middle of the back, the part where the two sides of the back meet at the spine
2. صَلَّى (Form II verb) - To pray, to bless, to invoke blessings upon
3. الرحمة الله: من الصلاة - Salah from Allah means mercy/blessing
4. الاستغفار الملائكة: من الصلاة - Salah from angels means seeking forgiveness
5. الدعاء المؤمني: من الصلاة - Salah from believers means supplication
6. الانار صلى (Form I) - To burn in fire, to be exposed to fire's heat

From Al-Mufradat by Al-Raghib Al-Isfahani:

- الصلاة in origin refers to supplication (الدعاء)
- When attributed to Allah and His angels: blessing and mercy
- The ritual prayer is called صلاة because it involves دعاء (supplication)

Critical Distinction: Two Different Roots

The research reveals that the Quran uses words from two related but distinct semantic fields:

Root 1: الّصَّلَاة → صَلَّى (Form II) → وَ ل ص

- Meaning: To pray, to bless, to invoke mercy/blessings
- Context: Always positive - worship, blessing, supplication
- Forms: الّصَّلَاة, صَلَّى, صَلَّوْا, صَلَّيْ

Root 2: صَلَّى (Form I) → ي ل ص

- Meaning: To burn, to be exposed to fire
- Context: Always in context of punishment in fire
- Forms: صَلَّى, صَلَّوْا, صَلَّيْ, صَلَّيْ

This distinction is crucial for understanding the Quranic usage.

Contextual Analysis

Key Findings from Quranic Usage

1. The Critical Distinction: Two Semantic Fields

The Quran uses forms from the root ص-ل-و/ي in two completely distinct semantic fields:

Field A: الصَّلَاةُ (Form II) → صَلَّى

- Meaning: Connection, blessing, supplication, prayer
- Always positive context
- Subject: Believers, prophets, Allah, angels

Field B: صَلَّى (Form I) → صَلَّى

- Meaning: Burning, exposure to fire's heat
- Always context of punishment
- Subject: Disbelievers, sinners

Evidence for Distinction:

- Form II (صَلَّى) is always followed by preposition عَلَى (upon) or used with إقامة
 - Form I (صَلَّى) is always followed by direct object, النار, جهنم, سعير (سعي را)

2. الصَّلَاةُ is “Established” (أَقِيَمَتْ), Not “Performed” (أَدِيَتْ)

Pattern Discovery:

The Quran exclusively uses the verb أَقَامَ (to establish/uphold/maintain) with الصَّلَاةُ, never أَدَّى (to perform/fulfill).

Verb	Meaning	Implication
أَقَامَ	To establish, uphold, make stand	الصَّلَاةُ is something to be maintained continuously , a state of being
أَدَّى	To perform, fulfill, discharge	Would imply a mere ritual to be completed

Quranic Insight: الصَّلَاةُ is not a ritual to be “performed” and finished, but a state to be established and maintained.

3. الصلاة and الزكاة: The Constant Pair

In the vast majority of verses, الصلاة appears paired with الزكاة.

Observation:

- الصلاة is أَقِيَمَتْ (established)
- الزكاة is آتَتْ (given)

Different verbs are used, suggesting الصلاة is an internal state while الزكاة is an external action.

4. الصلاة Prevents Evil (29:45)

Key Verse:

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا عَنِ تَنْهَاهِ لَصَلَاةٍ إِنَّ لَاصَلَاةَ وَلَا قِيَمَ

“Establish the الصلاة. Indeed, الصلاة prevents from immorality and wrongdoing.”

Quranic Insight: الصلاة when properly established, creates a spiritual state that naturally repels evil.
